CryptoStart Membership Agreement

This Consulting Agreement (the “Agreement”), is entered into by and between the parties below for a 3- month program; (Digital Asset Sisters Company) and; (member agreeing and paying for this service);

WHEREAS, the Client desires to get the services of the Company, detailed above this agreement form.

These services are NOT financial advice. These services are educational and entertainment purposes only. No meeting, email, text, or message sent out or received by the Digital Asset Sisters or employees should be considered financial advice. You are solely responsible for your decisions and actions.

In these services we include personal knowledge, personal investments, and personal strategies but you should always do your own research and make decisions at your own risk. THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the mutual covenants made by the parties hereto, the Parties to this agreement agree on the terms and conditions below. The subject of this Agreement is delivering of the services detailed above by the Consultant to the Client for a certain fee. In this context, the scope of the consultancy service to be provided is limited to the issues mentioned above. The scope of this Agreement shall only be expanded or narrowed with the written mutual consent of the parties.

Consulting Fees

Value for 3 Month Program = $3,000

Payment

The service fee is $3,000. The agreement is set to commence on the day the contract gets signed by both sides. Either a full time payment or monthly payments will be made for 3 months on the day the contract gets signed.

Termination

After signing the agreement, if within the first 10 days, you find that Digital Asset Sisters Consulting is not a perfect fit, you can terminate the agreement.

After the 10-day period, this agreement shall remain in effect until one or more of the following occur:

Agreement term of 3 month lapses without further terms or agreements added
Provider or Client Company files for bankruptcy or ceases to do business.

If the Client wishes to not re-new the agreement at the end of the 3 months, the Client must notify the Provider 30 days before the end of the agreement.

Independent Contractor

This Agreement shall govern the relationship of the parties, which shall be that of an independent contractor. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed so as to create an employer—employee relationship. Provider is an independent contractor in relation to Client. No agency relationship, joint venture or partnership is created by this Agreement. Provider shall have no authority, express or implied, to enter into contracts with third parties or make representations on behalf of Client without its express written consent. Provider understands they are an independent contractor and is therefore solely responsible for all self-employment taxes and any federal, state and local taxes or fees that may arise from the independent contractor relationship.

1. Scope of the Agreement

The subject of this Agreement is delivering of the services detailed above by the Consultant to the Client for a certain fee. In this context, the scope of the consultancy service to be provided is limited to the issues mentioned above. The scope of this Agreement shall only be expanded or narrowed with the written mutual consent of the parties.

2. Principles of Consultancy

The Consultant shall not claim commercial rights on the works within the scope of the consulting service, and shall not use the products developed during and after the service provided in other places and works on his behalf.

The Consultant shall act within the framework of the information it will receive from the Client and shall not be held responsible for the adverse outcomes or losses and damages that may occur as a result of providing missing or incorrect information.

The Consultant shall submit his ideas and suggestions to the Client in writing within the framework of his knowledge and expertise. In the post-delivery process and operation, the Client is completely free to comply with or partially fulfill the information and ideas conveyed, and all kinds of responsibility for these transactions belong to the Client.

The Consultant shall endeavor to fulfill its obligations under the this Agreement in the best way possible. However, if the service provided is not found adequate and/or correct by the Client, the Consultant accepts, declares and undertakes that it will not demand any material and/or moral compensation under any name and name, except for the termination of the contract. The parties shall not transfer their existing rights and obligations arising from this Agreement to third natural and legal persons.

3. Intellectual Property

This Agreement shall govern the relationship of the parties, which shall be that of an independent contractor. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed so as to create an employer—employee relationship. Provider is an independent contractor in relation to Client. No agency relationship, joint venture or partnership is created by this Agreement. Provider shall have no authority, express or implied, to enter into contracts with third parties or make representations on behalf of Client without its express written consent. Provider understands they are an independent contractor and is therefore solely responsible for all self-employment taxes and any federal, state and local taxes or fees that may arise from the independent contractor relationship.

4. Confidentiality

The Consultant undertakes for itself and guarantees to keep confidential any information relating to or that was disclosed in preparation of or as required under this Agreement and to prevent the passing on of such information to third parties (the "Confidential Information") other than mandatory notification responsibilities under Law. The Consultant shall not disclose, transmit, or convey, wholly or partially, the confidential information to any third party without the written consent of the other party. Accordingly the Consultant shall be obliged to disclose confidential information to the statutory bodies under the law of the land or any other Governmental Regulatory Authorities which shall not be deemed as a breach of confidentiality obligation. The provisions of this section shall survive the termination of this Agreement for whatever reason.

5. Miscellaneous

Amendments - Unless stated otherwise, no amendment of any provision of this Agreement shall be valid unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Parties.

Severability - Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms and provisions hereof.

Governing Law and Dispute Resolution - This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the substantive laws of the Colorado. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, shall be referred to and finally and exclusively settled by the Colorado Courts and Execution Offices.

Entire Agreement - This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties and supersedes any prior understandings, agreements or representations by or among the Parties, written or oral, to the extent they are related in any way to the subject matter hereof.

6. Prohibition on Competition

Recognizing that the various items of information are special and unique assets of the Client, the Consultant agrees and covenants that for a period of 2 years following the termination of this Agreement, whether such termination is voluntary or involuntary, the Consultant shall not directly or indirectly engage in any business competitive with the Client.

This covenant shall apply to the geographical area that includes the area within Colorado. Directly or indirectly engaging in any competitive business includes, but is not limited to, (i) engaging in a business as owner, partner, or agent, (ii) becoming an employee of any third party that is engaged in such business, or (iii) soliciting any customer of Client for the benefit of a third party that is engaged in such business.

In the event of violation of the non-competition obligation hereunder, the Client shall notify in writing the breaching Consultant and request immediate compliance with this Article. In the event of failure to comply within 30 (thirty) days as notified by the Client, the breaching Consultant shall pay a penalty of USD 10,000 (ten thousand US dollars), however the payment of such penalty shall not release Consultant from its obligation to act in compliance with its obligations under this Article.
